

Association for Distributors and Manufacturers of car service equipment

ARDIS is a professional association for official distributors and manufacturers of car service equipment. Our main purpose is to create a flourishing car service equipment market in Russia, make it available and civilized, where there is fair competition.

- “ ARDIS was established over 10 years ago by some of the largest companies in the field of car service equipment in Russia such as INMART, GARDIA and EQUINET.
- “ At the moment ARDIS has 20 companies of different sizes and specializations as its' members.
- “ Some of the companies exist for over 20 years.
- “ Geographically members of the Association are located in nearly all areas of Russian Federation and also operate through subsidiaries and branches.

- “ Members of ARDIS are 20 companies that possess over 70% of car service equipment market in Russia.

Russian car service equipment market

- Members of "ARDIS"
- Other companies

- “ Members of the Association are provided with their own Educational Centers and have a big number of service engineers on their staff.
- “ More key-companies in the car service equipment market plan to join ARDIS soon.

Members of ARDIS are official distributors in Russia of well-known car service equipment suppliers such as:

- Develop the civilized car service equipment market in Russia;
- Create the united Russian consolidation of distributors and manufacturers of the car service machinery;
- Lobby, represent and protect their interests in authorities and non-governmental organizations;
- Organize and hold the mutual programs with governmental and local authorities;
- Increase educational and professional level of service staff, mechanics and engineers in light of modern car service industry that gets more complicated, developed and modified.

- Obtain an opportunity to expand on the national level and to start a collaboration with foreign structures;
- Join specialized European organizations in order to make a successful integration as a united community;
- Develop mutually profitable and efficient relationship with European Associations;
- Adopt and apply educational and professional innovations provided on the international car service market.

From something in mind,
to something in kind!

ARDIS develops in traditions of the largest international associations, providing civilized market, free competition and, thus, an opportunity to choose the most qualitative production for the customers.

ARDIS proved its priority to protect the interests of its members. Recently, due to ARDIS, Federal Antimonopoly Service brought a case against “BMW AG” that violated the law “About the protection of business competition”.

We are looking forward to our future cooperation.

Thank you very much for your attention!

